Janko Bracic

University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

janko.bracic@fmf.uni-lj.si

Sets of operators determined by the numerical range

The notion of the numerical range of an operator on a complex Hilbert space is well known. We consider sets of operators with the numerical range contained in a given set of numbers. We are especially interested in the reflexivity and hyperreflexivity properties of these sets of operators.